

Sleep Tight Grandad Poem Lyrics

Sleep tight grandad,

Now that you've gone away,

For the fun and laughter that you brought,

We'll miss you every day.

Sleep tight Grandad

As time does, it seems to have ticked on

You grew up from that little lad,

And Grandad, now you're sadly gone,

Sleep tight grandad,

We know you're finally now at peace,

Though you are no longer here,

Our love will never cease.

Sleep tight grandad,

You always did what you thought was right,

We love you and for the last time,

We wish you a goodnight.

So sleep tight grandad

you are the man, the father and the son

it's time to rest now Grandad, you will be missed down here, by everyone.
